

HULL

At the family residence, on Nantasket av. Bayside, last evening, Miss Geraldine Walsh was given a birthday party by her parents, Mr and Mrs James L. Walsh. She received many gifts. Her parents presented her a talking machine. The guests included the Misses Catherine McLearn, Edna Clawson, Virginia Taurasi, Miriam McLearn, Mildred Clawson, Esther Halverson, Anna Hannon, Irene Streeter, Pauline Sylvester, Margaret Taurasi and Martha Rudderham, Stockhard Rudderham, Mr and Mrs James S. Maxwell and Mrs John E. Rudderham. There were games, music and dancing.

Mrs Harland R. Shelton has been elected delegate to represent the Hull Woman's Club at the meeting of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs, tomorrow, in Boston.

Arrangements are being made by the Engine 2 Associates for a masque ball the evening of March 17, at the Municipal Building, Nantasket. The committee in charge includes Leslie Trapp, Ralph Place, Raymond Gent, Alfred West, David Templeton and Horace G. Ettinger.

The Bible class met last evening with Miss Grace E. Wood at the James residence, Hull Village.

At the service club this evening the entertainment by pupils of the Village Grammar School will be held with over 65 members in the cast of the three-part production, which is directed by Miss Rachel Ayer of the supervisory staff.

The Nantasket Parent-Teachers' Association will hold a whist social this evening at the Damon School. The committee comprises Miss Eunice Lydon and Virginia Murphy.

An all-day sewing meeting was held today by members of the Ladies' Aid Society, at the home of Mrs Matthew McLearn, Allerton. The society will serve luncheon Monday to voters, at the Municipal Building, Nantasket, under auspices of the Citizens' Association.

Miss Sarah McNiece of the Village School, who completes duties Friday to take a position in Waltham, was guest last evening at a farewell party by Mr and Mrs Charles Fleck and family of Allerton.